

First Vowel in your Name

IF THE FIRST VOWEL IN YOUR FIRST NAME IS...

A

As letter A stands under the vibration of number 1, you are definitely a leader. You have a lot of ambition and can be really driven for success. You will probably choose a line of work in which your strong abilities can be developed. You will probably enjoy situations which allow you to direct and supervise. You do not take well with authority. You are very creative but can be overwhelmed with perfectionism. While you have a need to be recognized for your success and flourish with positive feedback, you are sensitive to criticism!

E

As the first vowel in your name, letter E is under the energy of number 5. You love your freedom and tend to be on the move. You get bored easily, but you are curious and always on the lookout for the next interesting experience. You never hesitate to speak the truth, sometimes at the cost of annoying those around you. You are also multitalented, working well with your hands. You are attracted by variety, unusual people, unusual interests, travel and adventure.

I

As letter I is your first vowel, it vibrates to the energy of number 9. You probably enjoy people as individuals. At the same time, you have a concern for humanity in general, and have the tendency to respond to the world with intensity, charisma and wisdom. You have lessons around letting go and forgiveness. You often experience challenges with your family. You are a source of inspiration to others. You are here to lead by example!

Friendly Numerologist

To book your personalized numerology reading, visit friendlynumerologist.com

A large, teal-colored letter 'O' is positioned on the left side of the page. The background features a light blue gradient with white diagonal lines radiating from the top right corner.

The O replicates the energy of number 6. You are sympathetic to the needs of others and can be quite helpful if others need you, as you strongly desire to be useful. Because you are usually so benevolent and so flexible, you may well be a pushover for those with strong and urgent needs of their own. You are the one that keeps the family together. You have to learn to recognize your needs and express your individuality in order to avoid frustration and resentment. "O" leads to reasoning!

A large, teal-colored letter 'U' is positioned on the left side of the page, below the letter 'O'.

You're probably very imaginative, creative and versatile, bursting with enthusiasm and optimism as the energy of number 3. People with this kind of vibration are always willing to share their energy, joy, talents and love with those who appreciate their gifts. You're apt to feel restless much of the time. Since the world is so exciting, you probably want to get involved with everything that comes your way. You often dissipate your energies on your many ventures with little to show for your efforts. You're very much attracted by variety, unusual people, unusual interests, travel and adventure.

A large, teal-colored letter 'Y' is positioned on the left side of the page, below the letter 'U'.

The Y has a value of 7. Sometimes we came across names that do not have the traditional vowels in them. This is the only letter that can be either a vowel or a consonant, and that is reflected in its shape: an intersection, a fork on the road where a choice must be made. You possess a very analytical mind. You love to study and leave no stone unturned when you are interested in a subject. You are very sensitive and feel deeply, but you don't always share your feelings easily and do not communicate them well. You like and need to spend time alone but have to be careful not to become too withdrawn. You are very intuitive and would benefit from meditating. Your interests lean towards the metaphysical side of life along with sciences and technology.

Friendly Numerologist

To book your personalized numerology reading, visit friendlynumerologist.com